

Tryouts wrapped up and our rosters are set for the start of the spring. There was a lot of thought that went into roster development for the season. The coaching staff stayed after each day to discuss player strengths, player positions, and overall depth within the program. I feel that the rosters provide each player an opportunity to grow and improve their skills while also putting a competitive team on the field at each level.

As I always say to our players, "Every day is an evaluation." If a player feels like they are misplaced, they have each day to show to the coaching staff that they need more of a challenge on the field and that they are ready to jump up a level.

Rockies Tickets

All players should have their Rockies Ticket packets in hand. Any players who did not pick one up need to reach out to Coach T immediately to get set up with one. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year and one that not only allows us to improve our program, but also allows us the opportunity to play at Coors Field in April.
